Subject: Wokingham Arts Society - Life Drawing

Dear Sue

Please excuse this unsolicited email but I found your details in the SAA magazine and wanted to draw your society's attention to the untutored monthly Life Drawing workshops that my company delivers in Swindon.

The venue is a large hall with all 'mod cons and ample free parking. The day runs from 10.00 – 16.00 and whilst the artists who attend, are not required to sign up for terms they do have to book the individual sessions in order to attend. There is however, a financial benefit if artists are able to commit to a term. The more terms booked at a time, the greater the discount.

All the artists have to bring is their lunch and materials. They can even hire one of our easels and boards for as little as £10. We supply chair, table, the model and refreshments during the breaks (tea, coffee, infusions and biscuits).

There is always a very friendly, non-judgmental group of artists who attend these workshops making for a relaxed, friendly atmosphere.

We would be delighted to welcome any members of your society, here to these workshops in Swindon with the next event taking place on Sunday September 4th.

As an introductory offer, I would like to extend a £6 discount (the normal non-refundable deposit fee) to your members who attend their first event here in Swindon, thus reducing the price to £20 (this excludes easel hire). Additionally, if 4 or more members attend the same workshop, under the terms of this introductory offer, I would be prepared to offer free easel hire (usually priced at £5 per easel). This of course is subject to availability as we strictly control the numbers attending so as to ensure clear uninterrupted views of the model.

I have attached a pdf document which details the dates for the 2011 workshops in case your members are not able to attend the September event and if any of the artists would like to be added to the mailing list, please drop me a line with their email addresses and I will be delighted to keep them posted with any updates.

I look forward to hearing from you.

Kind regards
