

Calling all artists

The John Ruskin Prize 2012

for a New Look at Nature

The Campaign for Drawing, in collaboration with the Guild of St George, announces a new art award. The John Ruskin Prize is open to everyone over 18 working in painting, drawing, print-making or mixed media, and resident in the UK. The aim is to encourage fresh interpretations of the natural environment.

First Prize: £1000 and an opportunity to exhibit at Brantwood (John Ruskin's Lake District home) and in the Millennium Gallery, Sheffield during the major autumn 2012 exhibition, Force of Nature: Picturing Ruskin's Landscape. The winner will also receive a specially commissioned oak pencil case.

Runners-up (nine): inclusion in the selling exhibition of short-listed artists at Brantwood and one night's accommodation to attend the Private View, where the winner will be announced.

Entries

Applicants may submit up to 3 digital images of artworks, which must be wall-mounted and not exceed 1.75 metres in any direction.

Entry Fee First image £10; second £5; third £5.
Big Draw Members may submit one image free and two further images at £5 each.
Please visit www.johnruskinprize.org for full guidelines and the entry form.

Entry deadline: 1 June '12

Shortlist announced: 6 July '12

Winner announced: 7 September '12

Brantwood Exhibition: 8 September-14 October '12

Selection Panel: Peter Randall-Page Artist;
Howard Hull Director, The Brantwood Trust;
Clive Wilmer Master, Guild of St George;
Sue Grayson Ford Director, Campaign for Drawing.

Enquiries to admin@campaignfordrawing.org
020 8351 1719

GUILD of St GEORGE

THE BIG DRAW